DEDICATION

"I wish you - every new year - some new love of lovely things . . .

and some new forgetfulness of the teasing things . . .

and some higher pride in the praising things . . .

and some sweeter peace from the hurrying things . . .

and a closer fence from worrying things . . .

and a longer stay of time when you are happy . . .

and a lighter flight of days that are unkind."

by JOHN RUSKIN

The Charles L. Suhr Library at Venango Campus includes an eclectic selection of research materials, is operated in an efficient manner, and is permeated with a feeling of helpfulness. This is because of Mary Elizabeth Williams, Librarian since 1962.

Mrs. Williams joined the faculty of Venango Campus the year following the institution's inception. She was instrumental in the original planning for and moving into the new library building which opened in July, 1976. The blueprints of the floor plan had disappointed her because the total area seemed inadequate. Consequently, the blueprints were changed and the facility was enlarged.

She is a native of Clarion. Clarion State College's own Dr. Vanz Still was one of her favorite teachers during her pre-college years. She received her Bachelor of Science Degree from Clarion State College. The University of Pittsburgh awarded her a Master's Degree in Library Science. She has done additional graduate work at Pennsylvania State University where she earned an Advanced Certificate in Library and Information Sciences.

Leisure time coupled with Mary Williams often results in someone else's gain. The Venango Chorus has been fortunate to include her as a dedicated member since 1978. She has devoted her love and labors since 1976 to carefully finding appropriate costumes and properties for the Campus play productions. She is active in many community affairs such as the Red Cross Board, Zonta, and various other groups.

Mrs. Williams has also served on several committees of importance at both Venango Campus and Clarion Main Campus. The Search Committee for the Director of Carlson Library (1982), and the Search Committee for a new administrator at Venango Campus (1983) are two of her most recent endeavors.

The 1983 Yearbook staff of Venango Campus dedicates this yearbook to a teacher and reference librarian held in the highest esteem by all who have had the privilege of knowing her. Thank you, Mary Elizabeth Williams, for being there when we needed you. But, most of all, thank you for being our friend.

Dear Student:

Education should increase one's awareness not only of the hopes and aims of human beings, but also of one's awareness of the injustice and intolerance of which they may be victims. With such increased awareness comes increased responsibility.

To the question of what constitutes one's responsibility, Goethe answered, "What the day demands." Antoine de Saint-Exupery has said, "A civilization is built on what is required of men, not on that which is provided for them."

My wish for you, as students and as graduates, is not that you may have acquired skills alone during your time at Venango Campus; but that you may have broadened your conception of your responsibility—that you may recognize "what the day demands" of you, and that you may have the imagination, the discipline, the ability, and the courage to perform that duty, however large or small, to your satisfaction.

The appropriateness of the combination of awareness and action is conveyed in Ruskin's claim that thought can be made healthy only by labor, and that labor can be made happy only by thought. May this felicitous union of healthy thought and happy labor bring you not contentment, but encouragement to continue determining and doing that which you perceive as your responsibility.

Sincerely,

Frank M. Clark

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to take this time to extend my thanks to everyone who helped in the production of the 1983 Pathfinder.

Thank you, Autumn Barrett, for all the typing you did for the yearbook. Thank you, Marilyn Neely, for coordinating the nursing graduates for their pictures. Thank you, Lynda Hoyt, for your help with the editing and writing. Thank you, Bonnie Steiner, for the special little things you did to make my job easier. Thank you, Mrs. Boyles, for your concern and cooperation when a room was needed for the yearbook staff. Thank you, Mr. Clark, for your letter to the students and everything you did to help me with the yearbook. Thank you, Libby Williams for all the help given to me by the library. And anyone else who was involved in the production of the yearbook, thank you very much.

Special thanks goes to Audean Duespohl for standing behind me through the entire production.

My staff deserves more than just a thank you. Without their help and dedication the yearbook would not have been a reality. 1983 Pathfinder staff, be proud of your efforts.

MONEY
by Richard Armour
Workers earn it,
Spendthrifts burn it,
Bankers lend it,
Women spend it,
Forgers fake it,
Taxes take it,
Dying leave it,
Heirs receive it,
Thrifty save it,
Misers crave it,
Robbers seize it,
Rich increase it,
Gamblers lose it . . .
I could use it.

Bad is the day for every man when he becomes absolutely satisfied with the life he is leading, with the thoughts that he is thinking, with the deeds he is doing; when there is not forever beating at the doors of his soul some great desire to do something larger which he knows he was meant and intended to do.

ORIENTATION DAY 1982

Computer students learn to use and respect the hardware.

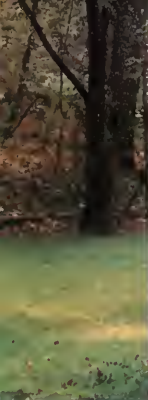

The pool tables provide much needed relaxation after classes.

Above: Ping-pong anyone?

Below: The library isn't always this foretorn.

There's a part of the sun in the apple,
There's a part of the moon in a rose;
There's a part of the flaming Pleiades
In every leaf that grows.

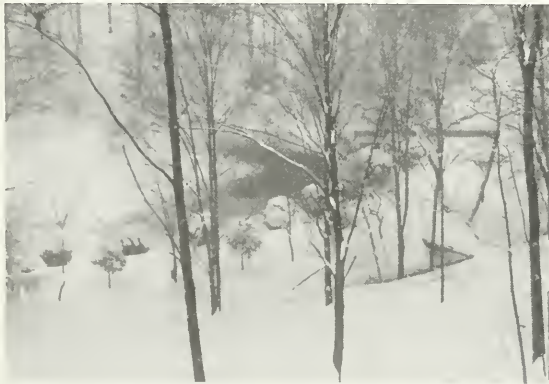

Out of the vast comes nearness;
For the God whose love we sing
Lends a little of his heaven
To every living thing.

FALL

WINTER

SPRING

SUMMER

When Autumn flings her banners wide upon
October air,
All nature seems to thank its God for making life so fair.
The hills go robed in amethyst,
the trees are dressed in fire,
The very air seems thrilling with a passionless desire.
One somehow feels that God on high must love
this season best,
He holds it as a mother holds her babe close to her breast.
The pressure of his hand is on all nature like a prayer-
When Autumn flings her banner wide upon October air.

Margaret E.
Sangster

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

Robert Frost

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;
A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up
that which is planted;

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-2

It is not raining rain to me,
It's raining daffodils;
In every dimpled drop I see Wild flowers on the hills.

The clouds of gray engulf the day
And overwhelm the town;
It is not raining rain to me,
It's raining roses down.

It is not raining rain to me,
But fields of clover bloom,
Where any buccaneering bee
May find a bed and room.

A health unto the happy!
A fig for him who frets!-
It is not raining rain to me,
It's raining violets.

The skies can't keep their secret!
They tell it to the hills -
The hills just tell the orchards -
And they the daffodils!

A bird, by chance, that goes that way
Soft overheard the whole.
If I should bribe the little bird,
Who knows but she would tell?

I think I won't, however,
It's finer not to know;
If summer were an axiom,
What sorcery had snow?

So keep your secret, Father!
I would not, if I could,
Know what the sapphire fellows do,
In your new-fashioned world!

"W"

RANCH©

On Saturday, October 23, 1982, the Venango Campus student senate sponsored an outing to the Flying "W" Ranch in West Hickory. After spoiling hopes, mother nature provided a change in the weather, bringing warm sunshine to the riders. Six campus students: Kevin Houpt, Carolyn Starcher, Amy Pfendler, Jeanette Murphy, Barb Culbertson, and Cindy Courtney and their guests were in attendance. Dr. Belzer, Biology instructor, also tried his luck with riding a horse.

An enjoyable evening was shared by the faculty and students at the annual Christmas Dinner-Dance held at Wanango Country Club on December 2, 1982. A delicious dinner was served in the main dining room. Dancing followed with music provided by "Satisfaction". Door prizes were awarded hourly throughout the evening. Angeli-que Caralla had the good fortune of winning a black and white television and Debbey Hibbard took home the Toshiba Mini-Cassette Stereo. Chaper-ones for the evening were:

Mr. Leonard Abate
Mr. Gregory Barnes
Mrs. Anita Hall
Mr. Gary Klingler
Mrs. Barbara Stright and their spouses

Special thanks are extended to Carolyn Starcher for coordinating this festive Christmas party, which can be added to our happy memories of Venango Campus.

The Venango Campus Student Senate along with their faculty advisors, Mr. Jim Kole and Mrs. Anita Hall, have worked long hours planning the disbursement of our activity fees. The Senate meets every Thursday to discuss their upcoming projects.

The activities planned in the fall of 1982 were:

"Toymaker and Son"
Horseback Riding
Halloween Dance
featuring SOUTHERN KNIGHTS
Dance featuring LORDE Christmas Dinner-Dance
featuring SATISFACTION

Items purchased by the Student Senate:

Ping Pong Table
Easels for Advertising
Soloflex Weights
Pool Cues
Refreshments for the Study Skills Seminars
YMCA Passes

The Student Senate also sponsored the following:

Wednesday Bulletin
Ski Club
Nursing Club
Basketball Team
Venango Campus Yearbook
Racquetball at Creekside Racquet Club

The yearbook staff would like to thank the Student Senate for all the time and effort put into the Venango Campus activities. Keep up the good work.
